

Going back to School

Lots of things stay the same

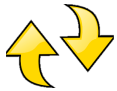

But most things change and are different.

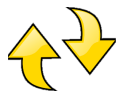

People change

Places change

Some changes can be exciting

Being at home is going to change. It is going to be different.

On the 8th March you will be going back to school.

School will be exciting .

Your friends will be the same.

Your classroom will be the same.

School will be fun.

Everything will be okay.