Top Tip: Encourage children and young people to make lots of small day-to day decisions by offering choices.

Involve children and young people in decisions at home e.g. what book to look at, what to do in free time, what to wear, who to spend time with, what to eat or drink in order to prepare them to be able make bigger decisions later in life. This can be supported with real objects or items, photos, pictures, symbols or the written word (as appropriate for the child or young person).
